

Newsletter 11 – 24th November 2017

On Monday morning I was lucky enough to be able to accompany the Prep 6 children when they visited the Chapel at Loreto Grammar School. Sue Perkins, the school Chaplain, talked to the girls about stewardship and the role that they could have in looking after our world. It was a very enjoyable and thought provoking morning.

It was good to see so many of you at the meeting last night. It is very difficult to summarise the meeting in a letter so if you would like further information or have any concerns please do not hesitate to contact me. I will be holding two drop in sessions for any parent to discuss their concerns on Wednesday 29th November either between 9.15 and 10.15 or between 2.45 and 3.45. I am looking forward to my first Christmas Fair at Loreto and hope to see many of you there tomorrow.

Art Project for Schools

I hope you have received your Christmas cards this week. This project raised over £300 for school. Thank you.

Russian Ballet Lessons

Before the summer holidays, Mrs Norwood contacted you about Russian Ballet Lessons in school. Unfortunately, at this time, we do not have a room available to accommodate this group. However Mrs Udalova-Surkova is developing this idea outside of the school on a private basis, and is intending to set up her own ballet school. If you would like further information about this please email Mrs Udalova-

Surkova at udalova.surkova@gmail.com

Christmas

There are so many exciting things going on in school in the next few weeks – please keep a look out for letters or parentmails with all the details.

Website

Our new website is up and running and I have had lots of positive comments from the parents who have taken a look. Please take a few minutes to become familiar with it because it contains a wealth of information and you may find it very useful in keeping up to date with all that is going on in school.
